I'll see if Tom can give you a call. He was with her.

Regarding mining stories, there are some really good ones out there. Here are a few:

That would be great, tnx.. The event is 4p.m. EDT so hopefully not too long after that, right? meanwhile, for color, did she already do the tour? Can you tell me what she did and saw? If there's even a snippet of a quote from her morning I'd love to have it.. tnx much. I appreciate the ironies here and we're looking at doing a story on the mining issues that created the waste pond to begin with..

Hey, sorry we don't have a dial-in. I should have audio that I can send as soon as it's over.

Hi -- hope you're weathering the, um, flood.. I'm assuming there's no remote access to the media avail out there today. Will there be a way to get comments/statements from the visit?

Thanks & good luck!
